BAC EXAM WARNING

For Tunis Bac English exams, vocabulary and reading comprehension sections represent over 40% of the total score. This guide contains exactly what you need to master Lesson 3's technical compound adjectives, phonetic rules, and James Joyce's poetic themes.

PART 1: THE EXHAUSTIVE COURSE THEORY

1. Lexical Focus: Art, Exhibition & Booking Vocabulary

Tunisian Bac English comprehension texts regularly test your ability to match words with their definition. Here are the exact lexical units from Unit 1, Lesson 3 of your book:

Lexical Item	Definition & Exam Explanation	Contextual Example
foyer	An entrance hall or large open space in a theatre, cinema, hotel or gallery.	We met in the National Gallery foyer before the interactive talk.
refreshments	Light food and drinks provided at a cinema, concert, meeting, or public venue.	Complimentary refreshments were served at the youth art gallery.
performance	An act of presenting a play, concert, or other form of entertainment.	The British performing arts college organized a night of dance.

interactive	Allowing and encouraging direct communication and active participation between people.	The dietician delivered an interactive presentation to the group.

2. Grammar Focus: Compound Adjectives (Adjectifs Composés)

A compound adjective is formed of two or more words, usually joined by a hyphen, acting as a single descriptor before a noun. There are two high-scoring patterns regularly tested in the Tunisian Baccalaureate:

Pattern A: Number + Noun (Singular)

When a number is joined with a noun to describe another noun, the describing noun is always singular and separated by a hyphen. Do not write a plural '-s' on the describing noun! Example: 'a ten-minute talk' (NOT 'a ten-minutes talk').

Expanded Phrase	BAC Compound Adjective	Exam Key Rule
A talk that lasts ten minutes	a ten-minute talk	Noun 'minute' remains singular!
A journey that lasts twenty days	a twenty-day journey	Noun 'day' remains singular!
A book containing 200 pages	a 200-page book	Noun 'page' remains singular!
A car designed with four doors	a four-door car	Noun 'door' remains singular!

Expanded Phrase	BAC Compound Adjective	Exam Key Rule
A bank note of 30 dinars	a 30-dinar bank note	Noun 'dinar' remains singular!
A flight that lasts six hours	a 6-hour flight	Noun 'hour' remains singular!

Pattern B: Noun/Adjective + Past Participle or Noun+-ed

These structures are used to create sophisticated descriptions, expressing how an object is built, inspired, or character-defined.

Formula Category	BAC Textbook Examples	Semantic Interpretation
Noun + Past Participle	science-inspired exhibits	Exhibits that are inspired by science.
Adverb + Past Participle	emotionally-charged style	A style that is filled or charged with emotion.
Adjective + Noun + -ed	noble-spirited friend kind-hearted artist strong-willed student	A friend who has a noble spirit. An artist who has a kind heart. A student with a strong will.

3. Literary Study: James Joyce's Poetry ('Strings in the earth and air')

Your book features a famous poem by Irish author James Joyce (1882-1941) that contrasts art, music, and nature. Here is the text of the poem, followed by the definitive BAC textual analysis:

Strings in the earth and air

*Strings in the earth and air
Make music sweet;
Strings by the river where
The willows meet.*

*There's music along the river
For Love wanders there
Pale flowers on his mantle,
Dark leaves on his hair.*

*All softly playing
With head to the music bent,
And fingers straying
Upon an instrument.*

— James Joyce

BAC Poetic Analysis & Commentary:

- General Tone: The tone of the poem is peaceful, gentle, and highly romantic, depicting a natural world in absolute harmonic equilibrium. Nature itself behaves as a giant stringed instrument.
- Relationship between Music & Love: Music and Love are deeply intertwined. Music acts as a medium for Love. In Stanza 2, 'Love' is personified as a musician wandering by the river with 'Pale flowers on his mantle' and 'Dark leaves on his hair'.
- Literal vs. Figurative Meaning: The word 'Strings' is used in both its literal meaning (the physical strings of musical instruments like harps, lutes, or violins) and its figurative meaning (representing the unseen bonds of nature, wind playing through the willow trees, and emotional connections).
- Rhyme Scheme: Alternating rhymes (a-b-a-b). For instance, 'air' (a) / 'sweet' (b) / 'where' (a) / 'meet' (b).

4. Data Visualization: Preferred Class Activities
